

November 30, 2017, 17:00-18:30

Victor VILAÇA Da ROCHA

BCAM - Basque Center for Applied Mathematics

INTRODUCTION TO TURBULENCE

The goal of the talk is to present the notion of intermittency, and some phenomenological models to take into account this phenomena (from the beta model to the multifractality). Finally, we will study shell models, which consist in a class of deterministic nonlinear models that display intermittency.