- Those who use any other service on the website that involves the communication of data to BCAM
- To any others who, directly or indirectly, have given their express consent for their data to be processed by BCAM for any of the purposes set out in this Policy

The use of BCAM's services requires the express acceptance of this Policy.

BCAM warns that, except for the existence of a legally constituted representation, no user can use the identity of another person and communicate their personal data, so the data provided to BCAM by the users must be personal data, corresponding to their own identity, adequate, relevant, current, accurate and true. In this regard, the user will be solely responsible for any direct or indirect damage caused to third parties or BCAM by the use of another person's data or their own data when they are false, erroneous, not current, inadequate or irrelevant. Likewise, the user who communicates the personal data of a third party will be responsible for having obtained the corresponding authorization from the interested party, as well as for its consequences in the opposite case.

In the same way, the user who communicates personal data to BCAM declares that he or she is of legal age, in accordance with the provisions of Spanish law, abstaining in the opposite case from providing his or her data. Any information provided on a minor will require the consent or prior authorization of their parents, guardians or legal representatives, who will be held responsible for the information provided by the minor in their care.

This Policy will be of subsidiary application with respect to those other conditions regarding the protection of personal data that are established on a special basis and are communicated, without limitation, through the forms, and therefore this Policy is complementary to those mentioned in that not expressly provided in them.

Purposes of the collection and processing of personal data

BCAM - Basque Center for Applied Mathematics is a center financed mainly with public funds, with a strong commitment to openly disseminate the research it carries out on Mathematics and its applications to society. In line with this commitment, BCAM treats the information provided by the interested parties in order to manage the sending of requested information and provide them with news about the center's activity, the scientific events organized and the possible job opportunities that arise.

BCAM, in its capacity as data controller, informs users of the existence of various processing operations and files in which the personal data communicated are collected and stored.

The purposes of such collection and processing of personal data are as follows:

- In relation to the "cookies" that BCAM uses in the navigation through its web pages www.bcamath.org and <https://wp.bcamath.org/> are stored in the terminal equipment of the user (computer or mobile device) and collect information when visiting said web pages, with the purpose of improving the usability of the same, to know the habits or navigation needs of the users to be able to adapt to them, as well as to obtain information for statistical purposes. In any case, users can configure their browser to disable or block the reception of all or some of the cookies. The fact that you do not wish to receive these cookies does not prevent you from accessing the information on BCAM's websites, although the use of certain services may be limited. If, once consent has been granted for the reception of cookies, the user wishes to withdraw them, those stored on the user's computer must be eliminated through the options of the different browsers. All the information about the cookies used by BCAM is published in its Cookies Policy, available for consultation in the website.

- In the case of the sending of an e-mail to BCAM or a communication of personal data by any other means, such as a contact form, the purpose of the collection and processing of such data by BCAM is to respond to queries and requests for information about the services and work of BCAM.
- In the case of sending an email to BCAM related to your job offers, such data will be processed to participate in the recruitment procedures.
- In the case of BCAM forms that interested parties fill out for the purpose of receiving communications about the center by email, the purpose will be to facilitate such information. The interested party may modify his decision at any time, as many times as he wishes, through the means provided by BCAM for this purpose.

Period of storage of personal data

BCAM will retain the personal data provided as long as the data subject does not request their deletion.

Recipients of personal data

The recipients of the personal data collected by BCAM will be the following:

- BCAM's own employees in the performance of their duties.
- BCAM's providers involved in the provision of services, if this is necessary for the provision of such services.
- The judicial or administrative bodies, as well as the State Security Forces and Bodies, in the event that BCAM is required under current legislation to provide information related to its clients and services.
- The following service providers are strictly required for the development of the activity of www.bcamath.org and <https://wp.bcamath.org/> under their corresponding conditions of privacy:
  - Google Analytics: Google Inc. Google Analytics uses "cookies", which are text files placed on your computer, to help <http://www.bcamath.org> analyze how users use the website. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website will be transmitted to and stored by Google on its servers.
  - Hosting: Sarenet S.A.U. provides the hosting services to BCAM's website by storing information, images, video, or any content accessible via www.bcamath.org

- Wordpress: Automattic Inc. processes the data for the purpose of carrying out its services as a web content management platform
- Mailchimp (Email Marketing): The Rocket Science Group LLC d/b/a processes the data for the purpose of performing its email marketing services to BCAM.
- Gmail: Google Inc. through the Gmail email tool stores messages sent by users for contact purposes
- Google Drive and Google Forms: Google Inc. through the Google Drive and Google Forms tool stores the data provided by users in the registration forms for events carried out by BCAM.

Users' rights and exercise of those rights

Users may exercise the following rights recognized by the RGPD at any time:

- Right of access: Users have the right to obtain from BCAM information about whether personal data concerning them is being processed, to access it and to obtain information about the processing carried out.
- Right to obtain a copy of your personal data.
- Right of rectification: Users have the right to have BCAM rectify their personal data if it's inaccurate or incomplete.
- Right of withdrawal: Users have the right to have their data deleted when it's no longer necessary for the purpose for which it was provided or when the other legally established circumstances are met.
- Right of limitation of processing: Users have the right to request a limitation in the processing of their personal data, so that the processing operations to be applied in each case are not applied to them, in those cases provided for in Article 18 of the RGPD.
- The right to portability: Users have the right to receive personal data concerning them in a structured format, provided that such data is the sole responsibility of the user and has been provided by him/her.

Users may exercise their rights by sending an e-mail to info@bcamath.org or by sending a request with their ID card or a legally valid document proving their identity, addressed to BCAM - Basque Center for Applied Mathematics, C/ Alameda Mazarredo nº 14, 48009 Bilbao (Bizkaia) Spain, specifying the right they wish to exercise.

Supervisory authority

Users and/or customers may contact the relevant local supervisory authority if they consider that the processing of their personal data has not been carried out in accordance with current legislation.

The data protection supervisory authority in Spain is the Spanish Data Protection Agency, whose contact details are available on its website, specifically at <http://www.agpd.es/portalwebAGPD/CanalDelCiudadano/contacteciudadano/index-ides-idphp.php>.
